

Carroll County Democrat

VOLUME 34—No. 14

HUNTINGDON, TENNESSEE, FRIDAY APRIL 29, 1921

$1.50 THE YEAR

MMCH BEER FOUND IN RAID ON STILL

Prohibition Officers Made Rich
Haul in the Sixth District
Last Sunday Morning

Prohibition officers Deming and Comar made a very successful raid in the Sixth district of Carroll county early Sunday morning. They found twelve barrels of beer, and a small still near by. They are of the opinion that there is a larger still in that immediate section and this beer was the product of that still.

When the beer was discovered there was no person about it. The officers hid themselves and patiently awaited the coming of the owner. He soon came and when the officers emerged from their hiding the moonshiner ran. The officers fired several shots at the fleeing man but he made his get away and at this time has not been arrested. The beer and the still were on the farm of William Keel, but Mr. Keel lives in Jackson. At the home of Archie Keel, son, of William Keel, the officers found five and a half gallons of regular old "white mule." Young Keel, however, was not at home. The "white mule" was taken in charge by the officers. Some arrests will likely be made soon.

Making New Assessment

W. S. Scott, the county tax assessor, assisted by Eld. W. L. Denton, is making a new assessment of both real and personal property of the county. This assessment was made necessary under the new law enacted by the recent legislature and the assessment will stand for two years. If property owners would co-operate with the assessor in getting at the real value of property much complaint and trouble would be obviated. They are at work this week in the McKenzie community.

Buena Vista High

The commencement exercises of the Buena Vista High School will be from May 4 to May 9. The primary and intermediate departments will render a program on Wednesday night. Thursday night will be the musical recital. The annual play, "Professor Pepp" will be given on Saturday night. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday night by Rev. Chesley L. Bowden of Jackson Tenn. The program will close with the graduating exercises on Monday night. The presentation of diplomas will be by Connie M. Pickler.

Mr. Dill Dead

Emerson U. Dill died at his home on route four last Monday morning about 4 o'clock, after a lingering illness with a cancer, having been confined to his bed since Christmas. He was 58 years old and a man held in high esteem in his community. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Sid Dill, of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, and James Dill of this community and two daughters, Mrs. Elmer Dill, of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Mannie Cash, of this county. The interment occurred Wednesday afternoon at Palmer's Shelter, after appropriate funeral services.

A Pessimist

An optimist is a man who sees only the sunshine; pessimist is one who searches vainly for the moonshine.—Roanoke World News. One who searches vainly for the moonshine is also blind.—Nashville Tennessean. This last statement must certainly be true when applied to Carroll county.

Trezevant High Closing

The Trezevant High School is having its closing exercises this week. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered last Sunday by Eld. J. L. Hodgins, of Nashville. The lyceum number was given Monday night. Tuesday night was the recital by grammar grades. A school exhibit was given Wednesday from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., at 10:30 a. m. the class program was rendered, and at night the class address was made by J. W. Brister of Nashville. Thursday night the society program was given. Friday night a comedy drama, "The Average Man" will be given by the school. The excises will close Saturday night with a musical recital. This has been a very successful school year and much valuable work has been accomplished.

SINGING CONVENTION AT CONCORD CHURCH

Large Crowd and Much Interest—Two Marriages—Meet
Next With Bethel

A large crowd attended the annual spring singing of the Carroll County Convention which was held at Concord last Sunday. Some fine singers were present and some very excellent singing was enjoyed. The fall meeting of the association will be held with the Bethel church three miles north of Huntingdon.

Two new married couples attended the singing Sunday having taken the wedding vows that morning. They were Mr. Bee Crider to Miss Nannie Lee Moore and Mr. Olgar Dickerson to Miss Minnie Hargrave. These are clever young people of the Concord community, representatives of good families, and they were the recipients of many hearty congratulation and well wishes.

Miss Mary Priestly Cox and Miss Mary Johnson, pupils of Miss Glenn Hopkins in the department of music in the Huntingdon High School will give a piano recital next Saturday evening, April 30, at the auditorium, 8 o'clock. Everybody invited to be present.

HUGH EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT

Total Appropriations About the Same as Last Year, a Record for Peace Time

Congress, despite its volume of talk on governmental economy, will make permanent and annual appropriations of more than $4,500,000,000 during the first six months of this year, official reports of the senate and house appropriations committee show.

The amount is virtually the same as appropriations made last year, and is one of the greatest peace-time allotments ever made by congress in such a short time. Reductions of taxes, which already have shown a big shrinkage because of the slump in business is thus made more difficult, congressional leaders admit.

The appropriations, Representative Good, Iowa, chairman of the house appropriations committee, declared show the necessity for an immediate reorganization and reduction of governmental activities.

REAL BEER TO BE GIVEN KNOCKOUT

Volstead Will Introduce Bill to Prohibit Its Manufacture and Sale

Dry advocates were prepared to sound the death knell of real beer.

A bill prohibiting the manufacture, prescribing and sale of pre-prohibition-strength beer for medicinal purposes has been introduced in the house by Congressman Volstead. Volstead, father of the famous dry enforcement bill bearing his name, has written some new and rigid enforcement clauses into the new bill.

Anti-beer forces expressed confidence in the enactment of the bill. They claim sufficient strength in both branches of congress to crush whatever forces the friends of beer can muster.

If the new beer regulations, based on the ruling of A. Mitchell Palmer just before he left his post as attorney-general, that beer could be manufactured, prescribed and sold for medicinal purposes, are signed within the next few days, they will be in force just long enough to give the people a "taste" Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, said. Wheeler was of the opinion that the regulations will be signed when the new commissioner of internal revenue, D. H. Blair, is confirmed by the senate.

It was the intention of the dries to ask for a review of Palmer's ruling until they found it impossible to find the proper persons to make the appeal to Attorney-General Daugherty. Now, they will depend on their supporters in congress to plug the hole for all time.

CARROLL COUNTY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Splendid Program and Much Interest Manifested by Those Present

Last Tuesday the Carroll County Medical Association had its regular monthly meeting at the court house. A splendid program was had and much interest was manifested. A large membership and some visitors were present. All contributed to make it a meeting that no doctor could well fail to attend. Drs. L. W. Edwards and W. A. Oughterson, of Nashville, and Dr. V.E. Massey, of Huntingdon, read papers that were very instructive and enjoyed by all. Several physicians who had not paid their dues, did so at the meeting and expressed themselves so well pleased with the program rendered that they did not want to be absent from many of the future meetings, if at all possible to be there. The next meeting will be held at McKenzie the fourth Tuesday in May. Doctor, if you have the interest of your patients at heart, you cannot fail to be there. The society extended a rising vote of thanks to Drs. Edwards and Oughterson, of Nashville, for their visit to us and cordially invite them to come again.

HERO LAID TO REST AMONG HIS PEOPLE

Under Home Skies Warren Kyle is Laid Away Surrounded by His Friends

The remains of Warren Kyle, who made the supreme sacrifice on the battlefields of France, was re-interred at Hollow Rock last Sunday. The body reached Hollow Rock Saturday and was carried to the home of Luco McMackins, Mrs. McMackins being a sister of the deceased.

The burial and funeral services were held Sunday at the Baptist church. The services were under the auspices of the Masonic order and the American Legion. A procession followed the body from the residence to the church and an immense audience attended the services. It is estimated that over 2,000 people were present. The funeral was preached by Rev. T. M. Boyd.

Young Kyle was killed while in service on the day preceding the signing of the armistice. His body was buried on the field where he was killed, but later was brought to England, interred there, and exhumed and brought home. He was a fine young man and is survived by his wife and one child.

Big May Days

The first Sunday in May usually attracts large crowds to old Hollow Rock church, Roans Creek and at Liberty All. For nearly forty years this custom has prevailed. Next Sunday will be no exception at each these places. They generally have all-day services with dinner on the ground. Many attend for the benefit of the services, but a large number go for the outing and to be with the crowd.

Missionary Union

A meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, of the Weakley County Baptist Association, was held in McKenzie Wednesday. Mrs. T. N. Hale, of Dresden, is the president of the union. The program included, "Loyalty to Kingdom Work," Mrs. Mortimer Riley, of Memphis; devotional service, Mrs. Jas. E. Peery of Dresden; "Stewardship as Related to Ourselves," Mrs. Virgie Mayo, Mrs. John C. Crockett and Mrs. Thomas; "Stewardship of Our Young People," Miss Agnes Wipple; reading Miss Gladys Warren; missionary playlet, McKenzie Spaitz. Many delegates attended and the McKenzie church gave them a royal reception.

Poteete—Lewis

Mr. Arther Poteete and Miss Essie Mae Lewis were married last Sunday. The marriage occurred at the home of Squire J. T. Biggart, of the Sixth district, Mr. Biggart saying the ceremony. A few special friends of the contracting parties witnessed the marriage and accompanied the couple to the home of Mrs. A. W. Fry where a fine wedding dinner was served. These are clever young people and their friends wish them a happy married life.

Trouble Averted

A citizen from the community of Yuma rode up to the hitching rack in Huntingdon a few days ago and while tying his nag to a post was approached by a Huntingdon citizen who timidly asked him if he wanted to buy some "white mule". The Yuma fellow gave the Huntingdon walking salesman a look of utter contempt and disdain, and indignantly remarked, I am from near yuma. Oh, excuse me, said the Huntingdon man, have you any more than you need. And thus serious trouble was averted.

Idle Hours

THERE is no place in the life of the successful man for idle hours. When he works, he works; when he plays, he plays. He does each in its appointed time and with purpose. But he is never found just waiting for "something to turn up." It is necessary that healthy minds have a certain amount of recreation, but when playtime comes he seeks the kind of diversion that appeals to him and pursues it just as assiduously as he does his work. Hours wisely spent are an investment which will pay dividends during your whole life; hours spent in idleness are a depreciation charge that must be added to your overhead when striking a balance in your Book of Life.

The Grand Leader

Here's How to Save Money When You Buy Clothes

Some men believe they save money by wearing clothes that don't cost much. But the man who makes his clothes-money go farthest is he who is more interested in dependable quality and good workmanship.

It isn't the price per suit that counts—it is the cost per year, the comfort, the better satisfaction and your appearance which really tells whether you're saving money or not.

Come in and see our new spring styles and let us explain further how you can save by coming to
THE GRAND LEADER... $20.00 and up

We would rather not make a sale than to make one the buyer would regret

Priest & Priest

The Home of Hart Shaffner & Marx Clothes

